

SOUTH LAKE PRIMARY SCHOOL HOMEWORK POLICY

Extract from Department of Education and Training Homework Policy:

Homework can support higher levels of student achievement by extending the time available for students to consolidate skills and concepts learned at school. As well as extending the time available for the exploration of current ideas and new situations homework can also be a means of furthering school-home relationships as it can assist in keeping parents informed about the student's learning program and progress.

Education Department Homework Guidelines Effective 16 January 2014.

South Lake Primary School approach to homework:

- is consistent with the Western Australian Curriculum and Assessment Outline and school plans.
- is developed in consultation with the school staff and parents /guardians and endorsed by the School Board.
The school council of an Independent Public School is referred to as the school board. Both school councils and boards must comply with the School Education Act 1999 and the School Regulations 2000.
- is regularly communicated to students and parents.
- includes general guidelines for parents, where appropriate, as to how they can support and assist their children.
- is supported and implemented by all staff.
- is to facilitate the achievement of learning outcomes.
- form part of a developmental learning program that is responsive to individual needs, clearly relevant, supported by classroom practice and, where appropriate, developed in collaboration with students; and
- should be disassociated from any form of punishing students or means of securing discipline.

General Guidelines

Homework should:

- support the development of the student's independence as a learner.
- further the partnership between school and home.
- avoid dependence on unreasonable levels of parental assistance or resources that are not readily available to the student.
- be set without impinging on reasonable time for family, recreational, cultural and employment pursuits relevant to the student's age, development, and educational aspirations.
- be balanced across learning areas to avoid stress and overload.
- be phased in gradually and consistently as students move through the primary years; and

- be consistently applied, monitored, and assessed in a whole-school approach that is responsive to individual needs and learning area requirements.
